

IPC to BNS Section Table

Every section of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 and the provision of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 that replaced it, in force since 1 July 2024.

Built from the official correspondence tables of the Bureau of Police Research & Development (Ministry of Home Affairs) and the National Crime Records Bureau, read against the bare Acts. Table updated 10 September 2026.

Tap any green section number to read the full text of the old and the new section, free on law365.app. For example, tap 420 to open IPC 420 and BNS 318(4) side by side.

How to read the Change column

- Changed: The official comparison records a change in the text. Read the new provision before relying on the old wording.
- Drafting change only: The words were redrafted, the substance is the same.
- No change: Same text, new number.
- Not summarised: Only NCRB's table lists the link, and it gives no summary of what changed.
- Not carried over: NCRB's table lists the section as deleted. Nothing in the new code replaces it.
- Not listed: Neither official table gives a counterpart. The section's own page explains what is known.
